Take an imagination journey filled with fun and fantasy! Designed for children of varied abilities, this spectacular drama program blends drama, improv and creative movement. Comedy, theatre games, costumes and props set the stage for a fun-filled time! Budding young artists explore the wonderful world of theatre and are sure to shine as they put their talents on display in their very own show. Program culminates with a costumed performance!

Arts education helps build academic skills, increase academic performance, improve behavior ... improve self-esteem and build creative skills. Drama shows consistent positive impacts ... research shows positive impacts of drama on reading skills, persuasive writing ability, narrative writing skills, and children's self-conceptions as learners and readers.
